HOMECOMING 2016

Friday September 30th is the date for the 2016 Homecoming and we hope to see you all there! The parade happens at 4 p.m., and the Irish take on the Ashley Bears at 7 p.m. at Community Memorial Stadium. At 8 p.m. doors open at the Parish Center for the Annual Alumni Reception hosted by the Alumni Association and the SHA Foundation. The classes of 1961, 1966, 1976, 1980 and 1986 are all having reunions that weekend.

GRAND MARSHAL NAMED

Our Grand Marshal for the 2016 Homecoming will be Bryan Neyer '86. Bryan and his wife, Yvonne Audretsch Neyer '88, have put three sons through the Academy, all SHA "lifers": Josh '12, Dustin '14 and Austin (Dave) '16.

The Neyers have been active in athletic programs throughout the years, providing sponsorship dollars and charter busses for events, along with organizing parent efforts like tailgates and celebrations. A few years ago, they organized a "We Believe" spirit wear effort which energized Irish fans of all ages. They generously support every effort along the way: donating to the annual Soup/Supper event, giving time, prizes and energy to the SHAgala event, donating to the football stadium project and much more.

Bryan chaired the SHAgala dinner/auction event for seven years, and continues to be the Advisor for the event, leading the school's number one fundraiser to its all-time high proceeds. He spends days up on a ladder or down on the floor connecting wires and putting pieces together for each dinner/auction event. Bryan has not only chaired the event, but has solicited gifts, sold cash raffle tickets, been on the advertising committee, and organized set-up and tear-down each year. Bryan and Yvonne also introduced the SHAgala "Giving Tree" several years ago and the concept has really taken off to benefit the bottom line of the event.

Bryan recently volunteered to participate in Career Day at the Academy, and continues to welcome class field trips at the family farm.

HALL OF FAME

The 2016 Hall of Fame honorees are Chris Wood '86, Andrea Campbell Tuttle '91 and John Hunter '97. The three will be inducted during half time of the Homecoming game on September 30, 2016 and will bring the total number of enshrined athletes to 101.

Chris Wood, circa 1986

Chris earned 8 varsity letters and received All State honors as a sophomore running back when he scored 15 touchdowns and gained 286 yards in one game. Although injuries slowed him down he was the team's second leading scorer in his final 2 seasons. Chris was also MVP and leading hitter of the baseball team. Chris and his wife Carmen live at Lake Isabella and he is an electrician for Edmore electric.

Andrea was twice MVP of both basketball and softball, receiving All State honors in both sports. She was the leading scorer on the 1990 basketball team and scored 513 career points including a 27 point game. In softball she was the first Irish pitcher to collect 20 wins in a season. Andrea has a Doctorate in Education Leadership and is currently Superintendent of Schools at Owosso Public Schools. She and husband John have 2 children.

Andrea Campbell, circa 1991

John earned All State honors in baseball where he played in 2 State Championship games. He was the MVP and leading scorer on the 1997 basketball team and totaled 585 career points. John also quarterbacked the football team into the playoffs in 1996. He is co-owner of Hunter Family Restaurants. John and his wife Denae have two children at Sacred Heart.

FINDING HUMOR IN EVERYDAY LIFE

Ask him, he will tell you: Hedlun Walton '92 has a great life. He has a good job. He has fantastic kids and a wonderful wife. He is busy every minute of every day. He is involved in coaching and other community activities. He barely has time to walk the family dog. But occasionally--and not as often anymore, he admits--Hedlun does stand-up comedy just for fun.

Hedlun, a guidance counselor at Okemos High School (near Lansing, Michigan) says what he enjoys most about his job is balance. He previously worked in child welfare with severely abused and neglected youth. "It was hard core and pretty intense," he said. "With this counseling position, I still feel like I can make a difference for at-risk youth, but I also get to help students get into great colleges and celebrate their successes with them."

After graduation from Sacred Heart, Hedlun studied psychology and English at Alma College, where he also played basketball. After graduation from Alma, he worked for Eagle Village and Listening Ear while he earned his Master's Degree in Counseling from Central Michigan University. He got married and moved to Lansing in 2000, where he worked for Catholic Social Services before taking the job with Okemos High School. He and his wife, Stephanie, have three children, daughter Audrey who is 12 and twin boys Brennan and Colin who are 10.

But does he seriously do stand-up comedy performances? The answer is yes. It started years ago, when he began writing a self-described "tongue-in-cheek Christmas letter" that his friends and family enjoyed. Hedlun and his wife are known among their friends for their very animated stories. The Women's Center of Greater Lansing was hosting a comedy fundraiser and invited Stephanie to an amateur performance. Hedlun coached her, and later, they asked him to be part of another event. After that, there were two years where he was doing maybe two shows a month. Open mics, fundraisers, house parties. Hedlun graciously helped SHA as the entertainment portion of a SHAgala Ultimate Night Out package, raising money for the Academy. Although he says he is pretty much retired now, he has fans.

"I've seen Hedlun perform a couple of times. I went to a show in Lansing and he was hilarious," said Jill Simons, wife of Dan '70, and mom of Jake '00, Zack '02 and Caleb '07. "He had the audience in stitches over everyday situations so we could really relate. I knew him when my husband coached him in high school. He was a quiet, respectful young man. As an adult he is very comfortable standing in front of an audience and making them laugh. His routines are a lot of fun."

Hedlun says he was never the class clown in high school, and people didn't know about his interest in Saturday Night Live or how he would imitate Billy Crystal or Eddie Murphy tapes. He certainly does enough public speaking in his job so he is not fearful of the part which seems to scare other people the most. He only gets nervous about whether his jokes are actually funny. "Even on my worst night, I figure I can survive 15 uncomfortable minutes and move on to the next show," he says. "At open mics, there is usually someone WAY worse than me, so I take a little solace in that." His material, he says, comes from everyday life. "Mostly from marriage or from parenting, or weird things that happened with our friends.

I embellish, of course, but sometimes the things people think are made up are completely true," he said, adding that one time his son asked him if JC Penney was a bank and he could not stop laughing. "When you have kids, you have to have a completely new perspective on things. I am as confused by the world as anyone. I try to do my best, but I often second-guess myself and I am willing to admit it. Like, how many times should you re-use a bathroom towel before it goes in the wash? No one has been able to give me a straight answer on things like that."

Hedlun Walton '92 is "truly a class act", says Dan Simons'70. Hedlun recently provided stand-up entertainment as part of an "Ultimate Night Out" package for the SHAgala fundraiser, netting over $3,000 for the Academy.

NEW WEB SITE BENEFICIAL FOR ALL

In April of 2015, after conducting a local and national search and reviewing many proposals, SHA hired a marketing consulting firm from St. Petersburg, Florida to create a new brand message and website design for Sacred Heart Academy. Cherry & Company was chosen due to their vast experience in the marketing of educational institutions, specifically parochial and non-parochial K-12 schools throughout the United States. They came highly recommended by prior customers and have many years of experience working with School Site, the content management system (CMS) provider integrated with RenWeb, our on line school system.

After completing an assessment, researching our local market, and gathering data during an investigative visit, Liz Cherry, president of Cherry & Company delivered as promised. This past April marked the completion of entering the new data content for both the Academy and Sacred Heart Parish websites. Combined with our new brand message and impressive web design, the new website went live on April 23rd. Take a minute to peruse our new website at www.sha.net and see for yourself the greatly improved look and functionality.

You will find a completely responsive site, where all the pages look great on any device from smart phones to smart TVs. By using School Site as the CMS, we have eliminated the need for duplicate data entry of common information. Our parents have quick and easy access to commonly sought information such as newsletters, lunch menus, school calendars, faculty listings, and daily announcements. With the new website comes the ability to create forms for data collection and add image galleries and video clips. As alum, I invite you to visit <http://academy.sha.net/alumni/> and see for yourself the plethora of information including reunion updates, alumni newsletters, yearbooks and the ability to enter updated information for our alumni database. We have already received several contacts via the online-form and look forward to receiving many more.

Plans are already underway for additional functionality including on-line enrollment and on-line payments. If you're looking for something and can't find it, or just want to share some feedback, please email me at mkreetz@sha.net. I would enjoy hearing from you.

The new sha.net website features bright, bold graphics and easy-to-access drop-down menus, offering instant access for parents, alumni, prospective families and other site visitors.

APPRECIATING THE PAST AND WELCOMING THE FUTURE

Summer can be a bittersweet time at Sacred Heart Academy. This is one of those years as we say thank you to five teachers who have given so much to our students and school community. They are both friends and family, and we will miss our daily interactions with them.

From the elementary school, the following teachers are retiring: Mary Beth Roberts, Marla Schneider, and Susan White. In addition, Rick Roberts is retiring from the high school and Lori Smith has resigned from the high school to move back to her hometown of Manistee. Together, these teachers worked at SHA for 99 years! They have put their heart and soul into our students and the Academy.

Rick and Mary Beth Roberts were among the SHA retirees this year.

When teachers come to Sacred Heart it is not for fame or fortune. It is because they feel called to do God's will and to make a difference. These teachers have done just that. They have given selflessly and served well. They have fulfilled a vocation. We will miss them, and we wish them much happiness and good health in their retirements and relocation.

We have hired three new teachers and an athletic director and are very excited about what they bring to the table.

Julie Flannery Theisen SHA'78 will teach first grade this fall. Whitney Thering SHA '05 will teach fifth grade. Katie Hausbeck (a Saginaw native) will teach math and religion in the secondary building. Ray Miesch (father of alumni Matthew Miesch '07 and Rebecca Miesch Hammerle '10, and father-in-law of Alex Hammerle '08) has assumed the role of athletic director.

Sacred Heart Academy is blessed to have such talented individuals joining our team. One of my favorite Mother Teresa quotes is "Serve with compassion." I know our new faculty will follow in the footsteps of their predecessors and make a difference by serving with compassion.

I hope you will join us for the Homecoming festivities on Friday, September 30. I look forward to seeing you at the Alumni & Friends Reception in the Parish Center following the football game that night. This is a great time to reconnect with old friends and make some new friends. This wonderful celebration is one of the many things which makes Sacred Heart special. Enjoy the rest of your summer and, as Mr. Roberts always told his football players, "Remember the Irish!"

Very truly yours,

Mary Kay Yonker, Principal

SENIOR GIFT

Just as reunion classes and individual alumni are encouraged to give back to the Academy, the Class of 2016 made a class gift to the SHA Foundation before graduation. Members were challenged by Principal Mary Kay Yonker to fill a beverage cup of their choice from vendors around town with the amount of money it would cost to purchase a beverage every day for a week, or to "round off" a donation. The total investment to the Foundation was almost $100, and the average gift was $5. Mrs. Yonker said she was very proud of the effort and especially the class members who participated. "We take great pride in graduating students who become good citizens of the community and the world around them. Each time a student gave me their donation I was reminded what makes SHA special," she said.

Katelyn Eidenberger'16 makes her personal donation to the SHA Foundation as part of a Senior Class gift.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!

Forty years ago, a group made up of SHA parents, parishioners and community leaders came together with a common goal. Ahead of their time in many ways, these people had incredible vision. They created the Sacred Heart Academy Foundation, an endowment fund which has supported the Academy ever since, covering operational expenses including—and specifically—teachers' salaries each year. With the support of SHA Foundation and the vision of those leaders, our school has thrived when others have failed. Sacred Heart Academy takes great pride in being the only remaining Kindergarten through 12th Grade school in our Diocese, and one of a select few in the state of Michigan. The SHA Foundation and its hardworking Trustees do not rest on the laurels of those who came before. They work harder than ever to boost the endowment balance to ensure Sacred Heart can pay competitive wages to teachers and make much-needed facility improvements.

In this 40th Anniversary year, please consider how you might help the Foundation. Your gift to the annual campaign this year, a legacy gift of life insurance, or an amount in your trust or estate, will greatly benefit the work of the SHA Foundation and its mission to support the fine tradition of Catholic education at SHA. Contact Connie McCann, Sacred Heart Development Director, at (989) 772-1385 or cmccann@sha.net for information on how you can help make the SHA Foundation stronger and, in turn, help Sacred Heart Academy.

The SHA Foundation lost a champion May 21, 2016 when Margaret "Tat" Heintz died. Tat was involved with the Foundation since its inception in February of 1976, and served as a Trustee of the organization until April of 2016, including 19 years as chairperson. Although not a graduate herself, she outlived husband Robert '40, and is survived by SHA graduate - children Bob'62, Jeff'65 (Jackie Thering'73), Mike'66, Joe'68, Kathleen Fountain'69, Dan'72 (Cheryl McNamara'72), and Pat'73, and grandchildren Joe Jr'98, Julie Wright'94, Karen Allmen'92, Todd'00 and Michael'99.
