HOMECOMING 2016

The 2016 Homecoming date is September 30th. Mark your calendars now! The Classes of 1956, 1966, 1976 and 1986 will be having reunions that weekend and possibly other classes too. Come join us! For pictures from last years activities, see Page Two.

ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR

Paul Bigard '85 is the 2016 Alumnus of the Year. The award is given annually to the alumnus who demonstrates the ideals of his/her Christian education through outstanding contributions to Church, School, Parish and Community.

Paul has served on the Sacred Heart Parish Council and Finance Committee, as well as the Development Committee and the "All Are Welcome" capital campaign project. His school involvement includes volunteer roles as School Board member and president, SHAGala Silent Auction and Cash Raffle committees, Home and School President and classroom volunteer (Junior Achievement and more), in addition to the Budget Committee and the Academy's ad hoc marketing committee.

Paul supports the homeless and needy, the STEM initiative and tuition assistance at SHA, in addition to the SHA Foundation. He and his wife Michelle are also involved in Marriage preparation for engaged couples in the parish.

SHAGALA SUCCESS

The annual Sacred Heart Academy fundraising dinner auction known as SHAGala exists and benefits the school in countless ways because of the dedication, commitment and passion of many people. This year's proceeds totaled an amazing $221,887 and included a sold out dinner serving 427 meals, and the third year in a row that all 1000 cash raffle tickets were sold. Special thanks to Co-Chairpersons Wendy McConnell Endres '91 and Marcy McDonald Hosking '90, and SHAGala Advisor Bryan Neyer, who led an amazing group of parent and alumni volunteers. We are also appreciative of the many alumni who volunteer, donate items, purchase raffle tickets, attend the event and continue to support SHA.

GRAND MARSHAL NAMED

Our Grand Marshal for Homecoming 2016 will be Bryan Neyer '86. Bryan is the son of Dave Neyer '61. He and his wife, Yvonne (Audretsch) Neyer '88, have put three sons through the Academy, all SHA "lifers": Josh '12, Dustin '14 and Austin (Dave) '16. Bryan has been active in the sponsorship of athletic programs throughout the years, generously supporting every effort along the way. He also lends a hand for the annual Soup/Supper event, donates gifts for SHAGala, has given to the football stadium project, and much more.

Bryan chaired the SHAGala dinner/auction event for seven years, which is the longest run of any chairperson. He continues to be the Advisor for the event. In 2015, Bryan led SHAGala to achieve its all-time high proceeds. For all of his good works and support, Bryan will be honored as Grand Marshal during the Homecoming festivities on Friday, September 30, 2016.

MORE PHOTOS FROM HOMECOMING 2015

Homecoming 2016 will be here before you know it, and we hardly even had a chance to share all of the great photos from last year. Here are a few more for your enjoyment. You can also find more on the school website at www.sha.net under the Alumni & Friends tab.

From riding in the parade, to a tour of the school, then on to lunch at the Pixie and a semi-formal dinner, the group had many opportunities to share high school memories and make new ones, too. Gathering for Sunday morning Mass was also special for class members.

CLAIM TO FAME BY BUD PERCHA '56

Sacred Heart Academy has produced many great athletes and scholars, many of whom hold records for their achievements in sports. Some of those records will last for many years in the future. Well, I think I may have a record not only at Sacred Heart, but quite likely in the State of Michigan.

So wow, what kind of record would that be? It would be for most hours of detention (staying after school)!

In my freshman year, I went deer hunting with my family in the Upper Peninsula for a week during school. When I returned, Sister Richard, our principal, called me into her office. I thought she was curious and wanted to know how successful we were. Not so! She told me I would have to serve detention double for every class hour I missed, which would be about 70 hours. The alternative was to be expelled. So I agreed and started serving my time.

In my sophomore year, Sister Richard came to me and told me if I went hunting more than one day (we were allowed one day), that I would be expelled. I said, "What about some of the students who go South in the winter with their parents?" She said, "If I let you go, then all the hunters will take off more time," adding that she did not want that

SHARE THE PRIDE OF SHA'S NEW LOOK

By definition, a "brand image" can be defined as the personality of an entity or organization. An image represents the relationship between the organization and its many audiences. The image associated with Sacred Heart Academy is represented by descriptors such as faith, community and tradition. Recently SHA introduced two new brand images and we are pleased to share them with alumni here.

Late in 2014, members of a task force led by the SHA Development Committee took on the not-so-easy task of "branding" Sacred Heart Academy. Over time, the school had collected several images which were being used in a myriad of ways, without one clear identity for the school. The same was true for our athletic image, borrowed and sometimes slightly manipulated from a popular Catholic university we all admire. Occasionally, when we wanted to have something printed, vendors would refuse, saying we did not have license to use the "Fighting Irish" logo. Hence, good reasons for our identity quest.

The quest took the better part of 2015, and happened concurrently with strategic planning. It involved stakeholders who were representative of alumni, parents, teachers, coaches, administration, clergy, students and donors. In image and type we wanted Sacred Heart Academy to portray a consistent and relevant brand which clearly communicates the school's academic mission and athletic achievements. I hope you agree the committee was successful.

ACADEMY
Est. 1889

Several people deserve credit for their artwork along the way: Assisting in the development of the new images in some way were SHA Alum Gina Heydens '10 and almost graduate Kimi Boulter, a member of the Class of '16. Local artist John Neyer (nephew of Jane Neyer Bacon '66, Ken Neyer '63, Rosie Neyer McFarland '56, Bob Neyer '60 and Patty Neyer Gostola '70) was also instrumental. The amazing artist who brought everything together for final presentation was 2011 Alumnus Emberly Motz. Emberly created a graphic standards manual which outlines appropriate use of the Sacred Heart Academy academic and athletic images. As a reminder, the "Veritas Academy" image (in the crest of the Alumni News on Page 1) will always be an Alumni image, and the bell tower drawing (also on page 1) will continue to be used by the SHA Alumni Association and Foundation.

To see the details of the new academic and athletic images, or for additional information, visit the school web site at www.sha.net and click the brand image tab. The school website is scheduled for a complete overhaul at the end of April, so hopefully your visit coincides with the roll-out of the new look. We hope you will visit often to keep up on school news and Alumni announcements, and to communicate your news with us. We are proud of all our students and alumni and welcome the opportunity to stay connected with you!

then. I was the only hunter in school on October 20. All of the hunters were football players, including myself, skipped practice that day. Our coach, "Germany" Jim Schultz, was so mad that the next day at practice we ran laps round Island Park for two hours.

But anyway, when November 15 rolled around, I went deer hunting by myself, taking my dad's car out east of Leaton, which was where we lived years ago. I was lucky that day, as I harvested a nice eight-point buck. My family went to the U.P. and came back with no deer. Sister Richard was all smiles, as she won this time. In my junior year, I went hunting for a week with my family, didn't have any luck, I had bad luck when I faced Sister Richard. She said she would "let me off the hook", but I would have to do the time - another 70 hours. I knew the routine. I think she missed me and wanted my company.

In my senior year, she knew I wouldn't be there, but what she didn't know was that I talked my best friend, Tom Cashen (All-State, Little All American Football Player), into going with me. We went back to the U.P. I was lucky and got a nice eight-point buck. Yes, Sister Richard was waiting for us - 70 more hours of hard time. But this time I had a partner. It didn't take near as long to clean off the blackboards. Sister Richard was a very intelligent person. In addition to being principal, she taught several math classes. When I graduated, in addition to my diploma, I received a certificate of merit for doing extra-curricular work.

Now you know it: my "Claim to Fame:" 210 hours of detention in three years. I'm sure that record may stand forever. The education I received at Sacred Heart gave me the confidence to become successful in life.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Mary Kay Yonker, Principal

Each issue of the Alumni News reminds me why we do what we do at Sacred Heart Academy. Our mission is to provide a balanced curriculum to strengthen mind, body, and spirit so each student fulfills God's purpose. When I speak with graduates and hear their success stories; when proud parents share what our Alumni are accomplishing in locations around the world; or when I work with teachers on their classroom goals and objectives; I have an incredible sense of pride in what we create at SHA. We graduate capable, caring, bright, young leaders who go on in life to become incredible citizens in their communities. The stories in this Alumni News issue correlate to what we do at the Academy each and every day. Let me give you a few examples.

Unapologetically Catholic

The School Board, teachers, and parents have heard me say this many times over the past 18 months. Sacred Heart Academy, by design and tradition, is a Catholic school. Reunion groups share their memories of daily Mass, writing "JMJ" at the top of each assignment to be turned in, and, overwhelmingly, the teachers who had the greatest impact: the sisters of religious order. Although we do not have nuns teaching today, we are fortunate to have Catholic lay teachers who weave the values of religion into students' daily lives. Our Pre-K through 12 community is supported by a church, allowing faith to be central in our decision-making. Enrollment is up in recent years, but we cannot be "all things to all people". We have to be the right fit for the right families: those who value our religious environment, which sets the stage for academic excellence.

Community Service

The "Claim to Fame" story by Bud Percha '56 made me smile. I'm sure he holds the record for actual detention time, and that it made him a better person. Today, a student may be issued an hour after school, or Saturday School time, for not following the rules such as dress code violation, tardiness/absences, or discipline reasons. However, it is more likely that students today are learning from the mandatory community service requirement. Mr. Percha says he was given a "certificate of merit for extra-curricular work". Students today earn valuable experience and empathy volunteering in outreach roles in the community, accumulating a minimum of 100 hours of service before graduation. As Mr. Percha testifies, this gives graduates "confidence" and makes them "successful".

Be A Champion Today

I see the alumni basketball photos on page three and I am reminded of the dedication and commitment students make to being part of a team, not to mention the friendships forged for years to come. I also walk by the Hall of Fame display in the school countless times each day. Being part of a team helps build leadership and respect. We are fortunate to have outstanding coaches as mentors. For a small school, we also have some mighty teams with incredible results. This year alone we had girls cross country and girls basketball in the state finals. Not too many years ago, the football and baseball teams brought home state championships. The Sacred Heart Irish are known as fierce competitors, whether it be in athletics, or in the academic realm of Quiz Bowl, Model United Nations or Science Olympiad. We build champions and we are proud of it!

I always enjoy connecting with alumni, and welcome you to contact me at any time. Homecoming 2016 is right around the corner and we are happy to help with class reunion planning.

Yours Truly,

Mary Kay Yonker, SHA Principal

SHA students recently had the opportunity to participate in the CLOSE UP government experience. Sacred Heart students have participated in the program for 26 years. This year, the group travelled to Hawaii for a week-long Asia-Pacific program, where they experienced a global community simulation, toured national monuments, and gained a deeper understanding of active citizenship. Pictured enjoying one of the luncheon events are, from left, Ayesha Mohan, Grace Reetz, Jacob Starry, Linde Bolle, Assistant Principal and Academic Advisor Marie Richards, Jack Gillespie, Rachel Hauck and Christian Maloney. SHA 30-year Government Teacher Phil Durocher also made the trip.

IRISH GIRLS ADVANCE TO STATE FINALS

For the second time in three years the Sacred Heart Girls Basketball squad advanced to the State Championship game. The 2013-14 girls won the championship but the 2015-16 girls fell short in a loss to #1-ranked Pittsford. The remarkable 24-2 season was led by senior Averi Gamble, who was honored as the Class D Player of the Year in the state. Averi set a school record with 40 points in a single game and her 1,272 career points places her second on the all-time scoring list just ahead of Kelsey DeNoyelles '08 and behind Sara Hansen '14, who tops the list.
