Bell tower wins! SHA Third Grader wins Michigan Art Award

Charlotte King won Top 15 State of Michigan honors—the highest honors awarded—in the Michigan Art Education Association student art show for the digital photo of the school bell tower she took and edited. Art teacher Sarah Chafee said she could only submit two pieces, so she asked other art teachers to help her decide, based on quality, craftsmanship, and the story behind the piece. "Charlotte's photo stood out because of the angle she shot it from, the overlapping foliage in the foreground, and the photo editing she did to emphasize the tower and give it an aged appearance," Mrs. Chafee said. Charlotte's parents, Spencer and Martha (Groves) King, hosted a special "art opening" for Charlotte where she celebrated her enthusiasm for art with her aunts and uncles who happen to be proud SHA graduates. Pictured with Charlotte, from left to right, are: Tim Groves '98 (and his wife Kyle), Scott Pieratt '96, Anna (Groves '01) McConnell, Sarah (Groves '95) Pieratt, and Shane McConnell '01.
