He received an AB degree from Georgetown University in Washington, DC and an MD degree from University of Michigan. He returned to University of Michigan Hospital to complete an orthopedic residency. He began the practice of orthopedics in Mt. Pleasant in 1975. He is a member of multiple medical societies. In 2007, he received an honorary Doctorate of Public Service from Central Michigan University.

Jayne grew up in Holly, Michigan and attended Adelpian Academy a Seventh-day Adventist boarding school through the 12th grade. She graduated from Andrews University and trained as a Registered Nurse at Kettering Medical Center in Dayton Ohio. She moved to Mt. Pleasant in 1974 and worked as an operating room nurse at Central Michigan Community Hospital. Since 1990, she has worked in orthopedic sales for DePuy-Synthes.

Doc and Jayne were married in 2000. Together they have four sons. They are proud of each one: Daniel is a graduate of Michigan State University and Georgetown Law School. He practices in Washington, DC, and lives in McLean, VA with his wife, Anne, and four children: Jake, Sadie, Cole, and Rory. Kevin is a Michigan State University graduate and is a realtor in Mt. Pleasant. He has one son, Brendan, who lives in Ann Arbor. Sean graduated from Georgetown University and is a doctoral student at the University of Cincinnati. He and his wife, Colleen, have one son, Pierce. Gavin lives in Mt. Pleasant. He and his wife, Soo, are graduates of Le Cordon Bleu in Sydney, Australia. He has worked as a chef. Presently, he works in sales for DePuy-Synthes. Soo is the head pastry chef at the Soaring Eagle Casino.

The couple enjoys spending time with family, friends and grandchildren. They love traveling and, especially, their hobby and passion: the Keating Horse Farm.

Both Doc and Jayne believe in the value of Christian education. They have been so impressed with the quality of education and accomplishments of Sacred Heart students that they established the Dr. Thomas and Mrs. Jayne Keating Scholarship to support the mission and success of Sacred Heart Academy.
