Dr. Thomas “Doc” Keating, a native of Saginaw, Michigan, lived near and attended St. Mary's Cathedral school from the 1st thru the 12th grade, graduating as the valedictorian of his class. He received an AB degree from Georgetown University in Washington, DC and an MD degree from University of Michigan. He trained in Surgery and Orthopaedics at the University of Michigan. He served two years in the United States Air Force. He began the practice of orthopedics in Mt. Pleasant in 1975. Doc retired in 2014.

Jayne grew up in Holly, Michigan and attended Adelpian Academy a Seventh-day Adventist boarding school through the 12th grade. She graduated from Andrews University and trained as a Registered Nurse at Kettering Medical Center in Dayton Ohio. She moved to Mt. Pleasant in 1974 and worked as an operating room nurse at Central Michigan Community Hospital. Since 1990, she has worked in orthopedic sales for DePuy-Synthes.

Doc and Jayne were married in 2000. Together they have four sons. They are proud of each one: Daniel is a graduate of Michigan State University and Georgetown Law School. He practices in Washington, DC, and lives in McLean, VA with his wife, Anne, and four children: Jake, Sadie, Cole, and Rory. Kevin is a Michigan State University graduate and is a realtor in Mt. Pleasant. He has one son, Brendan, who lives in Ann Arbor. Sean graduated from Georgetown University and lives in Cincinnati. He and his wife, Colleen, have one son, Pierce. Gavin is deceased. He and his wife, Soo, were graduates of Le Cordon Bleu in Sydney, Australia.

Doc and Jayne enjoy spending time with family, friends, and grandchildren. They love traveling and, especially, their hobby and passion: the Keating Horse Farm.

Both Doc and Jayne believe in the value of Christian education. They established the Dr. Thomas and Mrs. Jayne Keating Scholarship to support the mission and success of Sacred Heart Academy.
