

America and Me Essay Contest

April 2019

Three students from our 8th grade have been named the winners in the 50th annual America and Me Essay Contest, sponsored by Krista Brickner at Farm Bureau Insurance. The essay topic was My Personal Michigan Hero. The students were assigned to write about someone they know personally who has encouraged them and inspired them to want to live better and achieve more. The three winners from Sacred Heart are Samantha Reid, first, Jacob Pickens, second, and David

Hunter, third. All three received award certificates for their achievement. Their essays may be found by clicking on each student's name. Pictured above (L-R): Mrs. Clark, Samantha Reid, Jacob Pickens, David Hunter and Krista Brickner, Farm Bureau Agent.
