She has also volunteered with Sacred Heart's vacation bible school, the homework lab, fish fries, concession stands, the homeless shelter, food trucks, basketball camps, 4-H food stand, Adopt a Family and coached volleyball for Parks and Recreation. Last summer, Molly participated in a mission trip to Costa Rica with other SHA Spanish students. While there, they shared God's word with the children, taught English to elementary students and provided food and companionship for the lonely.

Molly has a GPA of 3.98 and plans to attend Central Michigan University or Saginaw Valley State University and pursue a career in education or nursing. Congratulations, Molly, and parents, Steve and Mary Kay Yonker!
