INTERLOCHEN MUSIC CAMP

During the summer of '48, Mary Keller and Kathleen Kennedy were chosen to represent S. H. A. at Interlochen Music Camp. Here they were given an opportunity to study music under the auspices of the leading musicians. The purpose of this camp is summed up in this quotation which stretches across Kresge Hall for all the world to see: "Dedicated To The Promotion of World Friendship Through the Universal Language of the Arts."

CATHOLIC YOUTH CONGRESS

CATHOLIC YOUTH CONGRESS

Mt. Pleasant played host to 330 teen-agers on February 14 when Sacred Heart Academy opened its first Congress of Catholic Youth.

The Congress, under the direction of the Very Rev. Leo J. Farquharson, was organized to give local Catholic youth a chance to get acquainted and to exchange viewpoints on Catholic living.

The Congress was attended by teen-agers from a 20-mile radius around Mt. Pleasant. This group was composed of St. Vincent's Youth Club, Shepherd; St. Michael's Youth Club, Remus; St. Philomena's Sodality, Beal City; the Junior Newman Club from St. Cecilia's, Clare; and Our Lady's Sodality of the Academy.

The day's program opened at 1:30 P. M. with registration at the Academy. The group then attended "The Unfinished Dance" with Margaret O'Brien, at the Broadway Theater. Following the movie the discussion period under the direction of Joyce Cotter, Academy prefect, began. Each official delegate from the five attending Catholic Youth organizations led a part of the discussion on the theme of the Congress—"Teen-agers' Thoughts on Frequent Holy Communion" and the group secretaries gave reports of activities and plans of their groups.

The Sacred Heart Glee Club sang following the discussion and reports, and the student body presented an original skit about good reading by Mary Ellen Sweeney.

The group then gathered in Sacred Heart Church where Father Thomas J. Bolger, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul parish, Shepherd, led the Rosary and gave a sermon on the Blessed Sacrament. Solemn Benediction followed.

Dinner and a dance formed the evening entertainment.

GOOD LITERATURE COMMITTEE

The tenth grade Good Literature Committee wrap Catholic periodicals for institutions in the United States and abroad. As a result of sponsoring a campaign in the grades, the class collected and sent a total of fifty-seven six-pound packages to England, Ireland, Germany, the Philippine Islands, and the United States.
