To you, Our Lady of Fatima, we the Senior Class of 1944 dedicate this book. We are going into the world remembering your threefold message of prayer, sacrifice, and devotion to your Immaculate Heart. We shall try unceasingly to fulfill your request of Fatima.

Interlochen Music Camp

During the summer of '49, Mary Kellner and Kathleen Kennedy were chosen to represent S. H. A. at Interlochen Music Camp. Here they were given an opportunity to study music under the auspices of the leading musicians. The purpose of this camp is summed up in this quotation which stretches across Eastage Hall for all the world to see: "Dedicated to The Promotion of World Friendship Through the Universal Language of the Arts."

CATHOLIC YOUTH CONGRESS

Mt. Pleasant played host to 350 teen-agers on February 11 when Sacred Heart Academy opened its first Congress of Catholic Youth.

The Congress, under the direction of the Very Rev. Leo J. Farquharson, was organized to give local Catholic youth a chance to get acquainted and to exchange viewpoints on Catholic living.

The Congress was attended by teen-agers from a 20-mile radius around Mt. Pleasant. This group was composed of St. Vincent's Youth Club, Shepheard; St. Michael's Youth Club, Romea; St. Philomena's Sociability, Beal City; the Junior Newman Club from St. Cecilia's, Clare; and Our Lady's Sociability of the Academy.

The day's program opened at 1:30 P.M. with registration at the Academy. The group then attended "The Unfinished Dance" with Margaret O'Brien, at the Broadway Theater. Following the movie the discussion period under the direction of Joyce Cotter, Academy prefect, began. Each official delegate from the five attending Catholic Youth organizations led a part of the discussion on the theme of the Congress--"Teen-agers: Thought on Present Holy Communions and the group secretaries gave reports of activities and plans of their group.

The Sacred Heart Glee Club sang following the discussion and reports, and the student body presented an original skit about good reading by Mary Ellen Sweeney.

The group then gathered in Sacred Heart Church where Father Thomas J. Bolger, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul parish, Shepheard, led the Rosary and gave a sermon on the Blessed Sacrament. Solemn Benediction followed.

Dinner and a dance formed the evening entertainment.
