THE SENIOR CLASS

SACRED HEART ACADEMY
Mt. Pleasant, Michigan

Presents the 1950
COR JESU
DEDICATION

HIS HOLINESS POPE PIUS XII

........ We, the Seniors of 1950, dedicate “Cor Jesu” to Our Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, in honor of the Holy Year.

In the hands of Christian youth rests the responsibility for tomorrow’s triumph of truth and right—Christian ideals.

We dedicate ourselves, Holy Father, to the task of bringing others to see the beauties of Christianity and to enjoy them in “that peace which the world cannot give.”

OUR BISHOP
The Most Reverend Francis J. Haas
To YOU Seniors:

"In ourselves the future lies." What a wealth of meaning! Perhaps to you now the word "FUTURE" is the all-meaning word. Rather, I like the present tense of the word, lies!

It's there now — all that training received that can guarantee the eternal future. It's there now, all the foundation necessary for future development in any field of endeavor you may choose. It is all there now.

Develop both futures with noble ambitions. Only one thing I ask; sublimate the one future to the other. It is the only one that really counts.

The Glee Club has made long strides this year. New choir robes of maroon and white appeared at Christmas time when the entire Glee Club and Boy Choir met in the sanctuary to sing Christmas carols preceding the Mass. On March 5th the Glee Club accepted an invitation from Central Michigan College of Education to present a Sunday afternoon concert in the Ball Room of the Keefer Union building. Gregorian Chant as well as A Cappella numbers from Palestrina and Mozart were featured on this program.

Besides the singing each Sunday morning at Mass, other events of the year included an Easter program, a Glee Club dance, the annual breakfast at which the members' mothers are honored and participation in the annual Spring Musical.
HOMECOMING

In spite of the brisk winds, the various classes which made up the Homecoming court turned out in full force. Each class in Holy Cross donned a different color; the Juniors were blue and white, the Sophomores black and red, the Freshman black and gold, the Seniors green and purple. Each class in Holy Cross contributed to the festivities with their efforts on the Queen's float. The Senior float was the most colorful and the students were dressed in a beautiful array of blue and white. The Freshmen took the top prize with a groovy scene.

FOOTBALL

Congratulations

Congratulations to the Athletic Association of Sacred Heart on the "unbeaten season." "UNBEATEN" spells ever so many words and exclits over so many thoughts: technical knowledge- bold courage- fixed determination- excellent coaching- long and hard training- subjection of self to a cause by a host of people- sacrifice of money- time- energy- worry- tenseness of parents-all must have been there to win this multiple victory.

We congratulate no single phase, but all phases of the "unbeaten season."

THE RECTORY

Ten o'clock was the big moment for Jackie Dieren, the Homecoming Queen, as she crowned the senior court and their escorts were crowned by "Dad" Swanson, Director of Athletics at Central Michigan College.
They Won't Be Back

RESERVED: They started with a smile, and ended up the same way—with an undefeated season. From this group will come a new name for next year's team.

CLASS WILL

The Seniors leave to the Freshmen a few brilliant minds (Preserved in alcohol).

To Father Forquharson, we leave all our good report cards.

To Father Lopes, we leave one rosary, my dear.

To Father Guzikowski, we leave fond memories of our wonderful golf team.

To Father Kudenda, we leave our inspiring religion classes.

To Sister Helen Louisa, we leave our wonderful behavior in assembly.

To Sister Celina, we leave peace of mind.

To Sister Ann Lucille, we leave the "Tall" of Two Cities.

To Sister Joseph Ann, we leave our best wishes in return for two eventful years under her guidance.

To Sister Basil, we leave our interesting and well prepared Civics reports.

I, George Blesch, leave my ability to attract at least some girls to Bill Horsey.

I, Louis Deni, leave my knowledge of Voisin's Jewelry Store to Cyril Rutemacher, who some day may have need of it.

I, Jean Baitnick, will to Nancy McDonald all my old Beal City beliefs in hopes that she can keep them.

I, Pete McCann, will my amazing ability for disturbing in class and never missing a penalty period to Neil Campbell who is usually in the same boat.

I, Jerry Powell, leave to Darcy Lapham all the touchdowns I scored in my football career, in hopes that he can keep up the good record.

I, Bob Theisen, leave my knack for shining shoes to Tom Sowie, who never has anything to do when he's over to Al's.

I, Bill Hall, leave my cottage to the Junior Class to have as good a time as we did our skip day.

I, Jude Lamann, leave my ability to get caught at the Stumme during school hours to Bill Sowie.

I, Jack McKenney, leave to Bill Kerin a few broken bones and my experiences on our skip day, with a hope that he can improve them.

I, Rita Gase, will my resting place at the organ to Rosalyn Theisen. May never a key stick me even a false note "bch," and the melody lead the choir faithfully through.

I, Larry McConnell, bequest my brilliant mind, good looks, and wonderful personality to anyone who wants them.

I, Margie McShea, leave my dependability and faithfulness to the Junior Boys.

I, Bill Busche, leave to Harry Quinlan my gold studded can opener.

I, Rita Ann Voisin, leave my dimples to Marie McConnell so that she may always keep smiling.

I, Patty Louther, leave my furtious nature to Helen Parmalee.

I, Wayne Berg, leave to Eileen Conners my long legs and my lilting voice. He may need them next year.

I, Wade Wischmeyer, will to Ed McShea my attraction for Clare girls.

I, Jim Shepp, leave to Ed McEvey my football and basketball talents. "Go to it, Ed."

I, Jackie Buerer, will to Mary Jane Tope my thrill-packed trips to Grand Rapids. She seems hungry for excitement.

I, Bob Quinlan, and I, Jerry McDonald, leave to Bob Houwドイ and Johnny Lamann our excursions to Beal City and Coldwater Lake.
