Dedication

To Mary, prudent above all, fairer than white lilies, purer than new-fallen snow, we devoutly dedicate the sixth volume of Cor Jesu. In her, under the title Help of Christians, we anchor our hopes and prayers for a happy and successful life. O Mary, Help of Young Christian Citizens, pray for us.

SHA 25; St. Mary's Flint 6

After dropping the season’s opener to St. James Bay City 9-6-13, the Irish broke into the win column with a 26-6 victory over a hapless St. Mary Flint squad. It took the Irish just eight plays to rack up the first of four touchdowns.

Murphy’s passing netted 162 yards while Quinlan, Cashen, and Company pounded out 164 yards on the ground. The scoring chores were well divided as Murphy, Jim McKenna, Frank Deol, and Dave Sowle each hit pay dirt once. Cashen converted one extra point in four attempts.

"Here's how it's done."

SHA 26; Holy Rosary Saginaw 0

Despite a heavy rain which hampered the usually effective Irish passing attack, the Academy pounded out a 26-6 victory over Holy Rosary by way of a potent ground attack. Quinlan and Cashen were the big guns on the Academy offense as they ripped off 217 of the 240 net yards gained by the Irish.

A last-minute plunge of completed passes was the only threat the Greyhounds offered all afternoon. Dave Sowle, Conrad English, and Jim Powell were outstanding on defense as they snuffed out each threat with sure, sharp tackling.

"Catch me if you can."

SHA 20; Beal City 0

The Irish continued their winning ways by trouncing their favorite enemies, the Beal City Aggies, 20-0 on rain-soaked Panther Field.

Shifty Bill Quinlan led the Irish scoring parade as usual with two touchdowns and provided the other tally in the third quarter on a 30-yard steal from quarterback John Murphy. Fred Cashen scored two points by way of place kicks. This raised the Irish consecutive shutout victory for the Academy over Beal City during the five campaign series between the two schools.

"Quinlan Express."

SHA 13; St. Paul's Owosso 0

Bill Quinlan’s long touchdown-run of 54 and 55 yards sparked SHA to victory over a big and determined St. Paul’s team. Quinlan’s first touchdown came late in the third period after a hard fought and scoreless first half, which saw both lines play exceptional defensive ball. Fred Cashen’s try for the extra point was blocked and Sacred Heart led 6-0.

Late in the fourth period Owosso moved to the 13-yard line before Cashen’s interception stopped the drive, and two plays later Quinlan went 64 yards to make it 13-0 as Cashen booted the extra point.

In the line, Dave Sowle, Jim Powell, Bill Clute, and Jim McKenna were outstanding for SHA.

"Meet you at the goal line, Fred."

SHA 32; St. Jones Essexville 19

The Irish struck lightning-like thrusts as Quinlan ran back the opening kickoff 97 yards for the first of two quick touchdowns by the Irish. The second came after Cashen recovered a fumble on the first play after the quick second kickoff. On the second play Dave Sowle took a 61-yard pass from John Murphy to score standing up. But an undiscouraged St. John’s came back to score from the one-yard line early in the second quarter. Then Murphy threw 28 yards to Quinlan as the half ended with the score 20-7 in favor of Academy. Cashen made two of three conversion attempts.

Late in the third period Murphy tossed 41 yards to Quinlan who ran the remaining 23 to score, St. John’s tallied on a 10-yard pass to bring the score to 26-13. In the fourth period Deol and Cashen combined to drive 60 yards to pay dirt with Cashen going over from the four. St. John’s then completed two passes of 34 and 23 yards to score the final points in a game in which Powell, English, and Fabiano stood out on defense for the Irish along with Mike McKenna.

"Follow me, Bill."

SHA 19; St. Marys Saginaw 19

Out to avenge last year’s beating at the hands of the Maroons, the Academy turned on the heat at the beginning of the game to hold a 6-0 edge at the end of the first quarter. The St. Marys passing attack then rolled into high gear as Donny Trocker connected to Ken Supp to the first Maroon counter. Trocker hit Woodcock for the extra point to put the Maroons in front 7-6. A poor pass from center yielded the Academy to score again before the end of the first half.

Woodcock, attempting to punt from his own 23, was foiled when the pass from center sailed over his head into the end zone; he managed to wangle his way back to the 8 before being tackled. Quinlan kicked off two more touchdowns to wrap up scoring honors. St. Mary’s scored twice on keeper plays which fooled Irish defenders completely.

"Hang on Murph; we’re coming."
Irish Bucket Brigade

The fighting Irish basketball team got off to a slow start against some of the highly rated class C schools in the state. These teams, Remus, Harrison, and St. Mary's Saginaw, proved too much for the football-minded Academy sportsmen. But Sacred Heart showed its fighting spirit by downing West Branch and sneaking by Essexville St. John's in a slugfest battle. They then employed the two-platoon system against Bay City Visitation whom Academy white-washed by a score of 86 to 54 with senior Bill Clare scoring 14 points for the evening. Coach John Murray still has hopes to retain the class D District trophy which his boys won in '52.

Irish Basketeers

Sacred Heart Academy's varsity composed of three seniors, five juniors, and one freshman, is coached by John Murray. Senior John Murphy, a regular guard on the squad, is the leading scorer with a 13-point average. Tom "Rangy" Sweeney, one of the midgets on the team, stands 6 ft. 4 in., and is the first string center. Another senior, Bill Clare is the globetrotter-type, the clown, and the life of the team. Bill "Handsome" Quinlan, regular guard, is popular on and off the court. Dave Sowle, the serious boy on the squad, is truly an Irishman. Jim McKenna has been called the "most reliable" because of his spirit and desire to win. Conrad "Hoagy" English is another high-spirited substitute for the Irish. Jack Sowle, the only freshman on the team, is showing the older men how. Joe Fabiano is a junior forward brought up from the junior varsity.
