Student Council — N.H.S., Get Ready for Any thing

Need money? Support? Kindness? Sacred Heart Student Council is handing it out by the bushelful. Through the tremendous effort of President Marty McGuire and his helpers, $1,500 was raised for the school in a candy drive, poor families had a happy Thanksgiving, and Homecoming 1970 was a huge success. Yes, the Student Council is handing out Love ... want some?

Another group, not so active, is the National Honor Society. A 3.2 scholastic average is required to stay in. The organization is led by Patrick McNamara, President and Mary Johnson, Vice-President.

FAR RIGHT: "Hey girls! You are not allowed to hang any of this kind of pictures around the train!" CENTER: Pep Club gives three cheers for the fighting Irish. ABOVE: The Sacred Heart Chaperones begin their hike to the Stratford Theatre. ABOVE LEFT: "Gee, I thought for sure I would be Homecoming Queen this year."

Pep Club — Stratford, Improve Morale, Minds.

"Victory, victory! Let's repeat it!" The shouts of Sacred Heart's newly organized Pep Club are helpful in boosting morale and drowning out competition from other teams. Poster contests, mixers, and fund raising events were organized by club President Maureen Meister, and Vice-President Colleen Sowle and gave the Pep Club a firm footing with the student body.

Shakespeare! Anyone? The answer was "yes" for a large number of Sacred Heart students who traveled to the 1970 Stratford Festival in Ontario, Canada. The featured play was the MERCHANT OF VENICE. The train ride provided many exciting moments. Remember the incident when a "Men Wanted" sign was placed above the girl's coach door. Prospects were few and far between. The trip was a success thanks to Sister Irene Mary and crew. Here's to many more exciting Stratford adventures!

Queen Cathy — Court, Make 1970 Homecoming

No lights were needed in Memorial Field on October 16 as the radiance from Queen Cathy Duffy's smiling face shown brightly throughout the stadium. It was a big week for everyone as Seniors assembled a fantastic Queen's float, Juniors set up the snake dance and everyone joined in the fun.

The underclassmen attendants looked very becoming along with Senior attendants, Maurine Bush and Marie Collin. Most of the show stealing was done by Queen Cathy as she proved how much a Queen she really is and reigned over the game and ball.

"Lowdown" and Debate Progress.

Sacred Heart's local paper, now in its second season, has proved it can survive the traumatic effects that doom most first year publications. Under the advisorship of Sister Irene Mary, the "Lowdown" editorship was rotated this year so that more students could share in the responsibility of printing their own newspaper.

Another group, the Debate Team, got off to a great start, discussing pollution with many schools, ending up second in the league and winning the District Title. The Tournament team, coached by Tom Degrow, of Central Michigan consisted of Marty McGuire, Kathy Grinzinger, Dan Nolan, and Tim Curtiss. Other debaters were: Peggy Murphy, Randy Leonard, Pat Lannen and Andrea Hackett.

Madrigals, Latin Club, Express Through Sound.

The black and white clad Madrigal group of Sacred Heart made Christmas 1970 a little more colorful for the student body. They presented a spotless performance of Carols to a large audience. Led by Sister Jeannine, the twenty-four talented singers' rendition of songs surprised many and earned high esteem, establishing another entertainment source at Sacred Heart.

Sounds of Music are not the only sounds coming from the mouths of Sacred Heart Students. A small group of six is now in their second year of perfecting the Latin language. Taught by Sister Euphemia, the class has become a part of the Junior Classical league, adding prestige to the school.

“I-R-I-S-H Go!” Cry Of Cheerleaders

Big, Bad, Bold, Yeah! Spirit that couldn't be stopped was the powerful super six of S.H.A. Screaming crowds, sweating bodies, final buzzer victories — these were a part of them. They cast their spirit spells that fired up the team which resulted in State Championship in football and first place in the Chippewa Conference in basketball. The enthusiastic loyalty was led by Captain Marie Collin and Co-Captain Kath Sweeney. Together with Sally Knight, Lucy Kostrzewa, Cheryl McNamara, and Marilyn Milan, they enlivened the vast crowds at S.H.A.'s games. It didn't end here though as the jumpin' J.V.'s knew how to jive, too. Their liveliness was directed by Captain Casey Collin and Co-Captain Marsha Doneth. Accompanied by the vigor of Marcie Bernard, Elaine Cluley, Cindy Doneth, and Bridgette Murphy, they helped keep the name “Fighting Irish” alive.

“With a Little Help From Our Friends”

The Press room was neat and tidy when school began, but it slowly developed into utter chaos and disorder. The peace was dispelled by the sounds of completely organized mass confusion. Under the leadership of Editors, Betsy Pollard and Joe Frick, assisted by Layout Editor — Judy Stankwitz, Production Editor — Sherry Sheredy, and Business Manager — Colleen Sowle, things went as smoothly as riding a barrel over Niagara Falls.

The Staff was completely cooperative — “What do you want me to do? I won’t do it!” “When do you want me to come? Sorry, I can’t make it” “I’ll help you on the second deadline. Oh, you mean it was yesterday?” I can do anything! I can’t do that.”

We finally DID do it. Despite everything, “We made it happen,” and we enjoyed every nail-chewing and hair-pulling experience!

Time off from regular high school activities doesn't come too often! This year each class spent from one to two days on a Retreat trying to become better acquainted with God, with themselves as persons, and with their friends as a class. The Freshmen spent a day at St. Mary's Central Michigan University Chapel, with Father Vesbit as their retreat master. St. Mary's was also the meeting place for the Sophomores as they discussed a number of topics with Father Finley. The Junior class traveled to St. Henry's in Rosebush, with Father Hartwig. They discussed matters relating to themselves and others. Ending the 1971 Retreat for Sacred Heart were the Seniors, who not only experienced an extremely successful two days, but became the first class to go on an overnight trip. They traveled to the Sacramentine Retreat House in Conway with Father Hoogterp and Father Boucher, discussing future plans and the role Christ will play in life after High School.

“Gone With the Wind” Brings Fond Memories.

The Juniors again proved that frantic last minute running around pays off. The results were a beautiful Prom and banquet using the theme, “Gone with the Wind.” Highlights of the banquet included the reading of the class will and entertainment which varied from the inspired singing of Mike Hendershot to the hilarious antics of Lynette Campbell and Kathy McCormick.

Prom night saw the usually drab gym transformed into a lovely old Southern Mansion and garden. Rich atmosphere and good music made the prom a lasting memory for the Juniors and most of all, for the Seniors.

Administration Tackles Another School Year

"Where are you supposed to be this hour?" "Tell Mr. Howard to close that door!" "Where is Moeggenberg?" "But Sister, this skirt is already two inches below my knees!" "Church — you mean we have to go to Church on Friday?" "I would like to report ten missing books." "Really my blouse is actually off white." "There is no excuse for the two of you to be found hiding underneath the stairs all ready to leave for lunch at 10:30 A.M." "If you were supposed to be in Chemistry, what are you doing in the bathroom?" "What is this world coming to!" Nobody could be all bad at Sacred Heart, because Sister Joannes, Mrs. Luesse, and Sister Eucharua are all on their toes from morning till night, showing us they care and teaching us to care about them not just as administrators, but as people.

Math, Science Shape Future Horizons

Attention Students!!! Man your compasses! Put on your gas masks! Find your scalpel! Turn on your generators! Focus your microscope! 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 Take off — on an exciting tour through the wonderful world of Physics, Algebra I and II, Geometry, Physical Science, Chemistry, Biology, and Trig, with your able-bodied pilots: Sister Genevieve, Sister Louise, Sister Lamberta, and Dr. Crawley. You will not be disappointed!!!

English — Speech, Classes Emphasize Self Expression

A sure recipe for a good English background would be: One year of introductory English, directed by Sister Irene Mary, added to one unbeaten year, taught by Mrs. Fredericks. Combine this with a Literature class of Sister Euphemia's and all the ingredients are then thoroughly blended to bake knowledge for the future.

Joys of Each Day Are Discovered in God-Song

It is Tuesday! Father Boucher is trying to quiet his senior Religion class. Sister Jeannine is trying to get her students to open up and sing.

Upstairs in 209, Father Kawka is in the process of testing his students; while across the hall, the Chorus members are busily testing Sister Jeannine's temper. But it all ends successfully every Friday as Chorus and Religion unite at the Mass, where mouths are opened and students prove they pass the biggest test of all.

Discovering Discussing Past, Present, Future

The Ace of all Subjects at Sacred Heart is History and doing the dealing are Sister Joannes, Mr. Grabowski, and Mr. Howard. Current events — Any one? Ancient or Modern History? Or maybe American? Whatever the century — whoever the dealer — we have them all in the winning hand of History at Sacred Heart.

Typing I, II Highlight Business Courses

Fourth and fifth hour Typing classes have kept local repair shops very busy with the problem of non-working typewriters. Looking beyond these technical difficulties, we see two really fine business teachers: Mrs. Scholl and Sister Celine who strive for accuracy and speed, accepting only the best from their students.

Big Red Team Best in State!

1968 — 1 win, 7 losses.
1969 — 3 wins, 4 losses, 1 tie.
1970 — 8 wins, 0 losses, 1 tie.

What's it like to be The Big Red Machine? What's it like to let only two teams score against you all season? What's it like to be the Conference champs? What's it like to have the best offensive and defensive lines in Class D? What's it like to be the Number One Class D team in Michigan? What's it like? Sacred Heart's Coach Grabowski, team, and fans can finally say, "We know what it's like!"

Irish Offense- Defense, Prove Unbeatable

Sacred Heart, with those fabulous Sophomores of two years ago — now Seniors turned in one sterling performance after another this season and became the first Sacred Heart football team since 1933 to capture a State Title. The Irish, with a tremendous running defense that shut out every conference opponent, only allowed 12 points on the season. Offensively, Sacred Heart was the highest scoring in the state with 431 points and was rated Number One halfway through the season by all three polls and never lost this despite a last game tie with Class C Shepherd.

Irish Superstars Grab Chippewa Conference Title

Happiness is winning and seeing the Irish play Basketball. It is seeing the happy faces of fans, coach, cheerleaders, and team. Happiness is basketball season.

Pride is winning and knowing you will win again. It is being rated and capturing the Chippewa Conference Championship. Pride is basketball season.

Sadness is losing, but getting stronger because of it. It is seeing the Seniors: Jim Luesse, Tom Collins, Larry Powell, Roger Therman, Brad Horan, and Pat McNamara, play their last game in high school. Sadness is the end of basketball season.

Spirit is a team that fights when they're down and a crowd that loves them no matter what. It is holding your head high after tournaments, knowing there is another year, another game and another great team. Spirit is Sacred Heart!

To Each His "Zone"

This season, the Sacred Heart Irish was one of the most respected Class D teams in the state. Coach Joe Grabowski, with the pooled efforts of Jim Powell and Mike Funnell, led the Irish boys through Basketball 1971 with a final record of thirteen wins and three losses.

The balanced Irish attack featured accurate outside shooting, strong rebounding, and outstanding defense. The fourteen man team, led by versatile forward Jim Luesse, play-maker Tom Collins, and rebounder Bill Kovach, worked together to maintain Sacred Heart's statewide reputation as one of the Class D Basketball "powerhouses".

FAR RIGHT: Tom Collins (12), with a season average of 14 points per game, drives for two. CENTER: All conference Jim Luesse (24) gets wrapped up in his shot. ## Irish J.V.'s — Girls

Never Say Die!

Equal rights for women is demonstrated by Sacred Heart, as the Irish girls take on the challenge of the full court press. Home games drew large crowds that grew steadily as the girls improved. Co-captains of the Varsity squad are Cathy Duffy and Mary Johnson. The J.V. Team is led by Ellen Myler and Frances Butters. A double overtime victory was an exciting finish to a great season for Coach Joan Klopac and her fabulous girl all-stars.

This year, the Boys' J.V. Team showed the fans what great teams are made of. Their undying determination, even when the chips were down proved worthwhile as their record ended with six wins and nine losses. Coach Mike Kostrzewa did a fine job and things look promising as the J.V.'s improve through experience.

Track — Golf Stars Make 1971 Scene

Taking to the greens this spring were: Dan Heintz, John Brehm, Steve Kirsch, Rick Wentworth, and Jim Leusse. Coached by Father Ed Boucher, the swinging Irish placed second in State competition, bringing home another trophy to add to the ever growing collection. The Irish beat the Shepherd Blue Jays in a thrilling match, by two strokes, proving how "up to par" the Irish are!

Coach Joe Grabowski pulled another fine track team together this year. Some of the highlights of the season included Andre Heroux placing second in the regional pole-vaulting competition and sixth in the State. Pat Bush, Brad Horan, Tom Lannen and Pat Lannen placed fourth in the regional mile relay competition with Doug Jones winning medals in several categories. The track team looks forward to next year when they can meet bigger and better challenges!

Baseball 1971 — Irish Strike Again!

The Baseball Team had an excellent year under the fine coaching of Mr. Jim Powell. They took the Chippewa Conference Title and entered tournament play with a 17-2 record. Beal City and the Irish tangled in one of the most thrilling games of the season. With Roger Therman as the pitcher and powerhouse batters such as Brad Horan, Jerry Willey, and Tom Collins, the Irish clinched the Conference Title over the Aggies.

This is the first year for baseball tournaments and everyone has high expectations for our fine team!

UNDERCLASSMEN

Class of 1974

Properly Initiated Through Exciting Year

"With a little help from my friends," should be the motto of the Freshman Class. Thanks to the Senior voices, the Freshmen over-bellied the Junior Class in a "spirit yell."

Shyness easily overcome, the newcomers exposed their hidden qualities. They exhibited their arts in J. V. football, basketball — both girls and boys, cheerleading, track, and baseball. Their "young spirit" captured them third place in float competition, let them experience confusion of mixers, and revealed true grit as they stood against the blow of Proposal C. With this performance of determination they are recognized as the future leaders of Sacred Heart.

Being a Sophomore Is — Being Yourself

To the class of '73, being a Sophomore has been something very special. It was a "number one" year, as their float paraded into first place, and their homerooms headed the fund-raising candy sale.

The Sophomores also experienced a "first" with lockers, and many frustrations of opening a stacked locker or having their locks taken. All was accepted in stride, however, as one of the things every Sophomore goes through.

Sacred Heart just wouldn't be the same without the Sophomore spirit, as they contributed their talents and energy to underclassmen sports and all areas of student life. They reluctantly say good-bye to an exciting year, and look forward to an even more meaningful Junior year.

Class of 1972 Works Toward Senior Year.

"Juniors! Juniors! Don't be shy! Let us hear your battle cry!" Once again, the battle cry of the Class of 1972 echoed throughout the halls as it continued to do all year. 1970-71 proved to be an exciting and rewarding one for Juniors. They showed their school spirit and unity early by winning first place in caroling. Red and White day saw them ease into another first place spot. "Finding yourself and relating to others", was the theme of the Junior retreat, when classmates had time to question and hopefully find answers.

This has been the year that the Class of 1972 continued, as a part of their tradition, to try hard and get satisfying results. The Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet, sponsored by the Juniors will long be remembered as a perfect climax for a very special year.

Seniors Share Horizons Look Towards Tomorrow

Nineteen fifty three gave birth to the leader of seventy one! Any doubts? Freshmen year, upper classmen were dazed as we produced the first and third winning floats. This fame marched on into our Sophomore year as we collected the largest amount of money during the annual Christmas Carolling project. Junior year, our spirit overwhelmed everyone as we made the magic of Camelot become a reality for the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. The crowning of that year had to be the possession of the pep jug! As Seniors, we are still holding our heads high as our boys led the Football team to the Class D State Championship. Thus, it is proved that there are none better than the Class of 1971!

Ending Senior Year Tears — Fears — Pride

Tear drops seem to wash away the habits of the past and stream forth in the hope of watering futures as the Seniors' laughter echoes through halls for the last time. The old saying, "See you in September" no longer holds for the Class of '71. The many pathways of the world are now open to the Seniors. The roads we choose will surely reflect our years at SHA!

Ending along with the 1971 Cor Jesu are many fond memories of the great times we had making this book happen. Gone are the piles and piles of layouts, copy and pictures to be sent in. Gone are the last minute emergencies that can never be avoided. Gone are the fun times in the Press Room; playing records, working and making new friends. Gone is the great staff of 1971. But here to stay is this book ... and let it serve as a memory of the hard times, the good times and most of all ... a memory of Sacred Heart Academy, 1970-71.

Our deepest thanks go to our advisor, Sister Euphemia, who let us make our own book, but was always around with good advice. A big thanks also to Mr. Figg of the American Yearbook Company and Mr. Gale Bradman of Gales Photography. We would like to thank the University of Detroit Journalism Workshop, especially Sister Marie Edwards, for training us and making the good things in this book possible. There are no thanks big enough for our great staff of fifteen hard workers. A special thank you to our Layout Editor, Judy Stankwitz and our Production Editor, Sherry Sheredy. We would also like to thank Sister Joannes and the other teachers who put up with flashing cameras all year!

In this book, we have made an attempt to tackle the new without destroying tradition. Throughout 1970-71, we made it happen and watched it grow, we put it together from just hello. And ... having put it together, there seems to be no more suitable ending than ... goodbye, and may 1971 happen again every time you read this book!
