ADMINISTRATION

This was Mr. Nedley's third year as principal at Sacred Heart. His main goal was to keep the school in order.

Monsignor Francis Murray was pastor of Sacred Heart Church. He was accompanied by co-pastor, Father Steve Fillion. Both helped to enrich students' knowledge of God through the weekly masses.

STAFF

Mrs. Barbara Coldwell was SHA's school receptionist and secretary for the sixth year. Some of her tasks were typing, answering the telephone, and bookkeeping.

Sweeping the floors and cleaning the classrooms kept the new custodian, Mrs. Irene Pacholka, very busy.

Mr. Ray Clark performed the essential maintenance tasks for the school for the 10th year.

(1) Mr. Nedley—supervising the halls. (2) Father Steve and Monsignor Murray. (3) Mrs. Pacholka—whistling while she works. (4) Mr. Clark lends a helping hand. (5) Mrs. Coldwell doing one of her many tasks.

"Religion is using everything for God."—Henry Ward Beecher. Guided by Sr. Carmella, Sr. Rita, Mrs. Fredericks, and Mrs. Janes, students learned about subjects ranging from Hinduism to the essence of marriage.

The freshmen learned more about God and their faith in their year long course. The sophomores studied the Old Testament in the first semester before taking mini courses second semester. The juniors took on the task of studying religions of the world. Also, they studied the sacraments before having mini courses second semester. The seniors ended their high school religion courses by studying preparation for adulthood and marriage before entering mini-courses.

Choices for mini courses included: Worship and Liturgy, Jesus and the New Testament, taught by Sr. Carmella; Death and Dying, and Church History taught by Mrs. Janes; and Community Service along with Decision Making, directed by Mrs. Fredericks.

(1) R. Ervin benefits from Mrs. Fredericks' wisdom. (2) Sr. Rita waits for an answer. (3) Students keep busy in religion class. (4) Students react in many different ways to religion. (5) Mrs. Janes lectures during class. (6) Sr. Carmella relays valuable information to her students.

"It seems clear to me God designed us to live in society." The teachers who helped us realize this were Mr. Cooper, Mr. Vanhala, Mr. Nedley, and Mrs. Grady.

This years government class, taught by Mr. Nedley, focused on the study of the three branches of government and conducted a weekly review of current events. Mr. Cooper's and Mr. Vanhala's World History courses gave a broad overview of the causes of man's transition from the beginning of recorded time to this era of high technology. In Mr. Vanhala's U.S. History course, they studied the development of our nation from 13 English Colonies to the world's most highly advanced country. Mr. Cooper also taught two mini courses, Presidents and Generations. Presidents was a study of our nation's leaders, from George Washington to Ronald Reagan. In Generations they explored the generations of the fifties and sixties to the seventies and eighties. A major project was tracing the roots of their families. Mrs. Grady taught Careers where students were able to study different careers.

"The work of science is to substitute facts for appearances and demonstrations for impressions." Ruskin

Sr. Genny and Mrs. Grady were newcomers to the science staff.

Sr. Genny taught Chemistry. The topics covered in the class varied from learning about molar mass of different gases to balancing chemical equations. The students also executed many experiments to improve their knowledge of Chemistry. Biology was taught by Mr. Reid. The students learned about cell structures and their functions as well as the five kingdoms of living things. Mr. Reid also taught Physiology. The major projects included simple labs, fetal pig dissection, and a research paper. Mrs. Grady taught Health. She covered such topics as drugs and their effects, emotions, and human anatomy.

This past year the math department started something new, a math lab for those who needed a bit of extra help in their math course. This special lab was conducted by Sr. Genny. The math department consisted of Mr. Dick Cooper, who taught introductory courses to Algebra 1 and Algebra 2. Mr. Bob Horan taught Algebra 1 and Algebra 2. Sr. Genny was new and, in addition to conducting the math lab, also taught Senior math. Mr. Kevin Richard taught Geometry.

With four new computers, a line printer, a disc drive and a cozy new room, Mr. Richard started the first computer class. The students learned how to use the equipment, and program in Basic.

There was a new teacher, Mrs. Grady, and a new class, Office Practice, added to the business department last year. Mrs. Grady taught two classes of Typing I. Mrs. Fitzpatrick taught Accounting, Shorthand, General Business and Office Practice. Office Practice gave the students the atmosphere of a real office job. The students had to make decisions, file, type and write business letters.

The thrill of victory over Baldwin, 30-20, was an excellent way to end Homecoming Week 1982. Friday held a special to-be-remembered church service, pancake breakfast, assembly, and a spectacular parade, with the sophomore float winning the float contest. Saturday night's dance put the finishing touch on Homecoming. Everyone danced the night away to Champagne.

JUNIOR/SENIOR BANQUET

The theme of the junior/senior banquet and prom was "MAGIC". On May 7 the juniors treated the seniors to a ham dinner with all the fixings. The activities featured skits of the seniors' futures, three singing performances, and a slide show. The banquet concluded with the results of the mock election, and the reading of the senior will.

PROM

On Friday, May 13, many seniors, juniors, and sophomores anxiously filled the Parish Center. There the magic began. The crowd danced to the beat of the D.J.'s, Audio Entertainment. Prom '83 ended with an extravaganza of balloons and bubbles.

All School Retreat

On December 14, 1982, an all day retreat was held in which we experienced getting to know others and yourself as an individual. Bishop Kenneth spoke in the morning on his life experiences and lunch followed. After lunch, classes went off with a group leader and discussed different experiences. A wonderful mass was held in the afternoon, with Father Paul leading everyone in the singing. All together it was a very worthwhile day.

School masses were held once a week. They were planned by the students. The students participated in the readings, as altar boys, as Eucharistic Ministers and many other jobs. The masses were enjoyed by the students and faculty.

The honors assembly was held on June 2 in the Church. Many students were recognized for their achievements throughout the year. The Academy Award winners this year were: seniors Tom McNamara and Kim Epple; juniors Jerry Sheahan and Michele Pacholka; sophomores, Richard Brandell and Laura Powell; freshmen, Jim Brandell and Kelly Murphy.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council advisor was Sr. Rita. She, along with the officers and members, proved to make the school year very successful. Their major accomplishments included activities for Catholic Schools Week and their annual raffle.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

There were over thirty members in the National Honor Society, which was advised by Sr. Helen. Their major goal was to complete a service project each month. October featured College Night, November's project was selling candles, January was a mixer, and February, Career Day. The money they earned was spent on an educational trip to Greenfield Village/Henry Ford Museum.

McDonald, G. Thelen.

El Club Espanol began the year with a burrito dinner. Spanish I students were initiated, then everyone went on a scavenger hunt (Spanish lists, of course.)

At the annual Fiesta de Navidad (Christmas party) club members made various Latin American dishes. The buffet was preceeded by a Spanish meditation and followed by the singing of carols, games and the breaking of three pinatas. The Club sponsored a bake sale in December and raised $120. The money helped send students to the Foreign Language Day at CMU in April.

The year concluded with separate Spanish I and II parties in May.

I knew I had my work cut out for me when I took the job as editor of the 1983 Cor Jesu. Besides our Photographer, Paul Janes, I was the only returning staff member. But with 14 newcomers, it looked hopeful.

Not being able to be in the classroom with my staff was the biggest problem, although Mrs. Leatherman helped them a great deal.

This yearbook would have never been possible without the help from our ICP staff representatives, Mary Kirby and Tom Vranich; Mrs. Leatherman; and the yearbook staff itself. Thanks to Bob Pulver, Guys and Dolls Photographer, for his help. Thanks also to those who have supported us throughout the years.

Sincerely,

Both the Varsity and Novice debate teams had a good year and many individuals carried home awards. The Varsity team sustained a respectable 7-7 season against very tough competition including class A and B schools.

The Novice team had an outstanding 11-3 record. Copping individual honors were Richard Brandell and Kevin O'Connell who each had 13-1 league records, with Richard taking 2nd place in the league out of 80 participants. Joel Myler received a 3rd place finish.

Individuals Pace Forensics Season

The Forensics year was highlighted by individuals receiving tournament awards. Members receiving tournament certificates were: Chuck Murphy, John Kipfmuehler, Maura Janes, Kelly Fitzpatrick, Wes Kirkey, and Richard Brandell.

In state competition, Wes Kirkey and Maura Janes advanced to districts action, Mary Beth Cluley went on to regionals, and John Kipfmuehler took part in the State Finals.

With just one returning starter from 1981-82's 20-5 team, it took time to rebuild the varsity girls basketball team and they had a lot to learn. Even though the record was 3-17 going into districts, they had a good chance because they were just starting to play to their potential. They went up against a lot of tough teams, one being Leland, ranked no. 1 in the state the past 3 years, and another was Beal City. They lost by 4 points to Michigan Lutheran Seminary in the opening game of Districts.

The JV team, with two freshman starters, showed their inexperience in the beginning, but as the season progressed, so did the team. Even though they didn't win many games. They learned a lot. They finished the season with a 4-16 record.

The Irish football team, led by first year coach Greg Grady, suffered through a tough year with a record of 4-5.

Players receiving awards were Tom McNamara—coaches award and Terry Coughlin—Terry Eurik award, representing leadership, determination and hard work. Bill Collin and Larry Morgenstern were voted offensive MVP and defensive MVP respectively by the team. Tim McDonald, Bill Collin and Larry Morgenstern were first team all-area performers.

Through it all, coach Grady felt "It was a good season, even though we ran into some tough teams, most notably Beal City and Grandville Calvin Christian."

EIGHTH IN STATE.

This past year was a very successful season for the Irish golf squad, which finished second in the Houghton Lake regionals and eighth in state.

The linksters faced tough competition all year, every team they faced was either class B or C, including class C state champions, St. Stephens.

Senior Doug Wentworth was named the team's MVP and was also included on the all-area squad. Other golfers competing included Senior: Paul Janes; Juniors: Sean Doyle, Jerry Sheahan, and Pat Bowers; Sophomores: Jim Fabiano and Mike Periard; and Freshman Jeff Sandy.

The Irish compiled a 6-5 record under the direction of head coach Dick Cooper.

The 1983 Varsity Baseball team had to battle bad weather as well as tough competition in compiling an 8-9 record. After a slow start, the Irish reeled off 5 wins and continued to play .500 ball heading into tournaments. With a 7-8-1 record, the Irish then romped Saginaw St. Mary's 11-0 in a mercy rule game. In districts, the Irish bowed out, losing a heartbreaker 3-2 in 8 innings. Dick Cooper coached. Leading hitters were Bob Miller and Bill Collin. Tim McDonald received most valuable player while Terry Coughlin received the Hustler Award.

The JV Baseball team, headed by Coach Greg Grady, had many fine individual performances on its way to a 9-12 season. With a large team, many people had playing time.

Leading the way was John Hire with a .425 batting average and a team leading 15 RBI's. Rich Brandell also hit .400 while Chris Wood and Dave Bergman chipped in with .325 avgs. Doug English also hit .300. Leading pitchers were Brian O'Connell with a 3-1 record as well as Greg Green, who fired a no-hitter.

I am not afraid of tomorrow, For I have seen yesterday, and I Love Today!!

In preparation for graduation, the Seniors held their Retreat at Mystic Camp Lake in Farwell. Prayer, discussion and horseback riding took place. The class then traveled to Cedar Point, despite rain, it was fun. At Commencement ceremonies, May 31, 1983, Father Paul Rouse spoke to the Seniors, along with Valedictorian M. Frick and Salutatorian, A. Clyne. Following was plenty of bowling and fun for the Seniors. Leading the Seniors throughout the year were: Pres. K. McCormick, V. Pres. A. Quinlan, Sec. A. Clyne and Trs. D. Croll. Advising the Seniors were Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Grady and Sr. Rita.

(1) Valedictorian M. Frick speaks at Graduation. (2) Salutatorian A. Clyne gives his speech. (3) Look at those smiles!! (4) Seniors wait anxiously. (5) Seniors watch "Jesus Christ Superstar" at L. Schafer's house. (6) K. Miller and D. Rudoni take a minute to talk with Sr. Carmella. (7) P. Janes receives his diploma from Principal Mr. Nedley.
