

A LOOK AT SACRED HEART PEOPLE

HEEL-TOE. A. Newman tap dancing at the Christmas concert.
PAY ATTENTION. Mr. Baumgarth "Pays attention" during English with Sr. Thaddeus.

WHO'S YOUR FRIEND? E. Lux and the Mole Hole mole hit it off.

NEW YEARBOOKS! A group of Juniors looking in the '84 yearbook.

FOR ME? N. Didion and M. Doyle at their lockers.

This year has been a year of healing and ministry amongst the students and faculty at Sacred Heart. We have gone through many hard times but as always, our wonderful school body survived and made a fun year out of 1985. They created a winning golf team and many other winners. During this year, we gained many new students and faculty.

SENIORS! The senior pep truck was hyped for the game.
BYE-BYE. Fr. Jim dismisses students after last day Christmas festivities.
CHAUFFEUR? J. Schaefer chauffeurs the prince and princess of Homecoming.
LEAVE ME ALONE. J. Pedjac gets his books from his locker.

FUNNY. A group of choir guys sing "Gramma Got Run Over By A Reindeer."
QUIET!! J. Goenner putting for par.

Miss Rakowski came to Sacred Heart along with Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Stahl, Mrs. Konwinski, Mrs. Voight and Father Jim. Mrs. Voight started the Sacred Heart Academy Swing Choir. A group of our students bought a D.J. company: "Audio Entertainment". These D.J.s have supplied the music for many groups and organizations such as our classes and cheerleaders. Our Student Council arranged a Hawaiian Mixer which earned money for the children of Ethiopia.

PRACTICE PRACTICE. C. Lux trying hard to be the best.
SWEET SINGER. Je. Hovey singing "Merry Christmas Darling."
HURRY!! M. Smith at her locker between classes.
NO WAY!! M. Arends, you look disgusted at that assignment.

KILLING TIME. Get back to class, L. Powell and M. Milan.
EEEE!! D. Radawski says hello to the camera.
CONCENTRATE! K. O'Connell, F. Deni, and S. Fox practicing their typing skills.

ACADEMICS

ART

Art class was taught by Mrs. Fredericks. She commented that her students worked extremely well together. "They are very talented."

CHOIR

The Choir was led by Mrs. Voigt. They displayed their talents at the SHA Christmas Concert (which was a big success). They also combined with MPH Choir to perform. They performed on various other occasions also.

(1) M. Eppe and D. English sketch in Art class. (2) Mrs. Fredericks instructs M. Cashen. (3) K. Pacholka, C. Wood and M. Richardson practice their vocals. (4) Mrs. Voigt leads her choir class.

BIOLOGY

(4) Sr. Genny, are you eating your experiments again? (5) M. McFarlane and J. Brandell discuss Chemistry. (6) The Chemistry class hard at work.

Instructors in the S.H.A. Science department were: Miss Rakowski, Sr. Genny, Mrs. Konwinski, and student teacher Mr. Dunham. Miss. Rakowski taught Biology and Advanced Biology for one semester, when Mr. Dunham took over. Sophomore Biology classes learned about animal and human physiology. Advanced Biology students were introduced to lake mapping, biochemistry and many ecology related topics. Freshmen Health/Science were taught by Mrs. Konwinski. Some of the things they learned about, included: drug abuse and counting calories. Sr. Genny taught Chemistry and Pre-Calculus. The Chemistry class did experiments dealing with moles and the properties of elements. In Pre-Calculus the class learned of graphing techniques, trigonometric functions and three-dimensional space. All in all, it was a learning time and a growing time for the science department at S.H.A.

CHEMISTRY

HISTORY/GOVERNMENT

U.S. and World History classes were taught by Mr. VanHala. The World History class was more of a geography/history class as the students spent the first semester studying geography. The second semester dealt with the rise of western civilization to about the French Revolution. U.S. History classes covered the major periods of history in the founding, settling, and developing of America. U.S. History students went on a field trip to the Henry Ford Museum in Detroit to view the progress of industrialization.

Mr. Durocher was in charge of Government and Current Events classes. In Government, students studied the branches of the U.S. Government. They held a mock election in November. Current Events classes kept up with the major issues of the world day by day.

RELIGION

The Religion Department was headed by Father Jim Bessert. He taught Liturgy and Worship which dealt with the overview and study of the historical development of our celebration of the Liturgy. Mr. Duracher taught Church History which consisted of the study of Apostolic Tradition. Included was the study of the Early Church and the Medieval Period. The class attempted to see continuity and change over time which helped them understand current religious issues. Mrs. Zeleznik taught morality. The course dealt with real life, the real world and how one decides right and wrong in complex situations. The student was encouraged to think and become responsible for wise moral decisions. Mrs. Janes took over the death and dying class. Course objectives included learning the christian viewpoint on death and dying, becoming familiar with the grieving process and developing an awareness of values and beliefs that comprise your psychological and theological position on death and dying. Mrs. Fredericks was head of the Community Service Program. The students went out in the community and visited the elderly. They went for walks, played cards and did a little dancing. The students attended class on Fridays to share their experiences of the previous week. Mrs. Jennings taught Spirituality or the Spiritual Journeys of Christ. The students used the Bible instead of a text and analyzed the Gospels. She also taught Paul and the Early Church.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Spanish I and II students were taught by Mrs. Knight. Students learned how to read, write and comprehend the language. The Foreign Language Day at C.M.U. enabled students to meet other Spanish speaking students from around the state. Students had a Spanish party and made pinatas. Spanish II students had the opportunity to initiate Spanish I students. At the National Spanish Exam Competition, all of the students did very well. Charlie Lux did the best by placing first in his division.

Latin classes were taught by Sr. Thaddeus. Latin students learned how to read and comprehend the language. The students read about many different Latin authors and were shown the different mythological figures in Latin. Latin II students initiated Latin I students early in the year. Students had the opportunity to join the Junior Classical League which had a convention. The students met other J.C.L. members there.

BOEC

1▲ 2▼

Our 1984/85 BOEC, Business Office Education Club, led by Mrs. Fitzpatrick had a number of activities during this school year. BOEC was involved in a competition in which 15 of its 23 members participated. The competition was in Grand Rapids where the regional finals were held. Many of the members placed. Jeff Prout placed 2nd in Accounting and 3rd place in Business Math. In the Economic Awareness competition, we had five students place: M. Sappington with second, K. MacDonald third, K. Campbell fourth, C. Murphy fifth and M. Schuckman took sixth place. Their competitions qualified them for state but due to problems with funds, they were unable to compete.

The group also had a fish fry to earn money to buy a computer printer. They would like to have the printer available to students for writing papers.

FORENSICS

Our Forensics Team was in many different competitions during the year. Areas of competition included such things as Humorous Interpretation and Radio Broadcasting. L. Zimmermann, during one of the early competitions, placed second in Humorous Interpretation, M. Periard placed third in Radio Broadcasting and S. Fox received Honorable Mention in Informative Speaking. M. Doyle, later in the year, placed alternate in Humorous Interpretation; S. Coughlin placed alternate in Informative Speaking; J. Schaefer and M. Kipfmueeller took second in Duo Interpretation and M. Periard captured second in Radio Broadcasting.

ENGLISH

▼3

The English department of 1984-85 consisted of Mrs. Fredericks, Mrs. Janes, Mrs. Fernelius and Sr. Thaddeus. Mrs. Fredericks directed the Seniors in English 12, Advanced Composition and World Literature. The Junior English program was led by Mrs. Janes who taught Creative Writing and Science Fiction. Mrs. Fernelius was the Sophomore English teacher. She taught Play Production, Advanced Speech, Drama, Debate and Forensics. Sr. Thaddeus taught Freshmen English.

Sacred Heart offers a 2nd semester elective program which gives students greater diversity and experience in communication skills and language arts.

To pay for membership fees and other expenses, the 1984-85 Latin Club sold candybars and sponsored a bake sale. Both Latin I and II participated in the Fall Assembly of the Michigan Junior Classical League at Delta College and the Spring Convention at U. of M. The end of the year brought a Roman Banquet and a breakfast at a local restaurant.

(1) Latin Club members at the JCL National Convention. (2) Sr. Thaddeus is serenaded. (3) Jon Warren and Mike Periard; friends forever.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club consisted of members from all classes. The club had sponsored many member oriented activities. An authentic fiesta was held to give the members an idea of what a Spanish celebration is like. A fund raiser was sponsored in order to raise money for a trip to Mexico. They also held a large spring party for the members.

Could anyone forget the popular initiation of the new members? The new members of the club were dressed as bulls and paraded around the school. The purpose of the initiation was to make the new members feel at home, not to embarrass them. We would also like to congratulate Charlie Lux for placing 1st in the National Spanish Exam.

DRAMA CLUB

The 84-85 Drama Club had a minimum amount of activity compared to previous years. The lessened amount of activities were due to lack of participation by members. The club did sponsor a Christmas Program which went very nicely and in the spring put on a program. The clubs organizer, Mrs. Fernelius, couldn't generate enough support to have any other programs during the year.

The Cor Jesu staff of 1984-85 was one to remember. Only six experienced staff members returned to help out, but with a lot of assistance from new students and a new advisor, we managed to complete the yearbook. Probably the most enjoyable thing about composing a yearbook is the feeling that you get when you finish a layout. When the pictures, artwork, and copy all fit together and make the yearbook exciting — you know that you have done something right.

LIBRARY AND AIDES

▲1

The library was under the direction of Mrs. Leatherman until March when she left to have her second child and then Mrs. Delia took over the librarian duties. There were three aides and their duties included sorting, checking in books and keeping the library clean. They were always ready to lend a helping hand.

To take refuge in sleep, prayer, retreat and fresh air adds another dimension to the Academy. We traveled many paths as a faith community in search of a deeper relationship with our God.

Sacred Heart hosted the Vicariate X Youth Rally. All day long, students from many outlying parishes joined in a day of reflection and celebration. The theme was "Take a look at yourself ... through the eyes of God."

JUNIOR

The Junior Senior Banquet was an outstanding success. The theme for the banquet was 'New York, New York.' The dinner of New York strip steak was followed by the Junior class skits, which consisted of take-offs from Saturday Night Live, Hee Haw and the Senior class reunion. The night was topped off with Father Jim singing the theme song.

AND THROUGH

During the election of Reagan and Mondale, the Senior Class put on a mock election. C. Murphy and L. Beltinck impersonated Mr. and Mrs. Reagan while R. Brandell and K. Fitzpatrick impersonated Mr. and Mrs. Bush. D. Thering and M. Murphy portrayed Mr. and Mrs. Mondale at the 1984 mock election with their running mate M. Chuley as Geraldine Ferraro. Advising and helping the Senior Class with the mock election was Mr. Durocher.

SPORTS

CROSS-COUNTRY

The 1984 Sacred Heart Academy cross country team was coached by Mr. Vanhala. Members included: Scott Coughlin, Jim Goenner, George Jennings, Jim Sponseller, Keith McDonald, B.J. Zimmermann, Matt Nivison, Jim Brandell, and Gayle Lo-Piccolo.

The 1984-85 Girls' Basketball Team consisted of two returning Basketball lettermen. Unfortunately, there were not enough girls to have both a J.V. and a Varsity team. The team was very young, and had to be taught the fundamentals of the game. The girls' were coached by Gary Bowl, and had a 9-11 record.

FOOTBALL

The 1984 Varsity Football team had what could have been called a mediocre year under first year head coach Jim Fox. In a season that had as many ups as it had downs, the Irish posted four shutouts along the way to a 5-4 record. Coach Fox received valuable help from assistant coach Bill Yeagley. Exceptional performers included: Mike "Spike" Epple — who was a leader on both offense and defense, Rich Brandell — who had an excellent year at linebacker, Mark Schuckman — who knew what it took to get the team fired up, Doug English — who was a nucleus of the defensive team, Steve Morgenstern and Chris Wood — who got yards the hard way as running backs, and sophomore quarterback Steve Fox — who ended up with over 500 yards passing.

BASKETBALL

The 1984-85 varsity boys basketball team finished the season with a very successful 13-8 record. First year coach Mike Gray brought Sacred Heart its first winning season in four years. The year featured much excitement as the final score was a difference of five points or less in eight of their games.

The Irish were led by Jeff Sandy — the team's high scorer with a 14.2 average per game, Doug Kunik — the team's top rebounder who carried a 13.8 scoring average, Mark Shuckman — a guard for the squad who had an 11.2 average, Mike Epple — a forward, playing for the first time since his freshman year, who gave added height to the lineup, and Mike Sappington — the point guard for Sacred Heart whose ball handling skills were unsurpassed.

CHEERLEADING

The J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders worked hard to keep spirit alive during the season. During a pep assembly the cheerleaders performed a routine to "Jump". They sponsored a bake sale to raise funds for future use. The J.V.'s included: Capt. Katie Doyle, Yvonne Audretsch, Danielle Radawski, Laurie Wentworth, Jill Grigaliunas. Varsity members included: Capt. Noelle Schiffer, Co-Capt. Kristen Aschenbach, Lisa Epple, Nancy Didion, Amie Audretsch, Jennifer McNerney, Paula Sorenson. BOYS AND GIRLS TRACK

The 1985 Track and Field Team, competed in seven invationals along with two tri-meets. Due to a shortage of athletes, our team standings didn't fare too well. However, individual performances were very encouraging.

The girls team was coached by Mr. Greg Dunham, a student teacher working with Miss Rakowski in the Science Department. The team was led by Junior Captain Gayle LoPiccolo, who took 8th place at the state finals in the 200 meter dash. This year's Most Valuable Runner was awarded to Sophomore Amy Powell. Amy also qualified individually for the state finals in the long jump and the 100 meter dash. The 440 and 880 relay finished with an impressive season by placing at the Morning Sun Invitational and qualifying for the State Finals. In addition to Gayle and Amy, Sophomore Mindy Cashen and Freshman Katy Heydenberg helped to pace the relays. Sophomore Lisa Gilbert and Freshman Katie Doyle provided support to the team in field events, sprints and hurdles. This year's boys team was coached by Mr. Marcus Vanhala. The highlight of the season came at the Morning Sun Invitational when Sophomore Mark Arends placed 2nd in the 800 meter with a time of 2:03.5. Mark also earned the Most Valuable Runner this year by earning 21 Varsity points. Sophomore Eric Rayner and Freshman Keith Seybert was also valuable assets to the team.

HONORS ASSEMBLY

The Honors Assembly was held May 13 at Sacred Heart Church. Many students were recognized for their achievements during the year. Awards were given for quarters on the Honor Roll, National Honor Society, outstanding performance in various classes and many categories. The Academy Award winners were, Seniors: Linda McDonald, Keith McDonald; Juniors: Mike Doyle, Gayle LoPiccolo; Sophomores: Amy Powell, Charlie Lux; Freshmen: Cami Sendre, Pat McDonald.

JUNIOR RETREAT

The Junior Retreat was held May 14 at St. Leo's Church in Winn. The theme for the retreat was "Do we know Him when we see Him." The combined efforts of Mrs. Janes, Miss Rakowski and Sr. Maria Goretti made the retreat a successful one.

Baccalaureate is a time of thanks and giving. This was the last gathering for the Seniors before Graduation. They presented roses to their parents during the Mass. Afterwards, there was a buffet for the Seniors and their parents. The Senior Retreat theme was: "Learning from the past; Building towards the future." The Seniors had a successful retreat. It was held at Cran-Hill Ranch in Rodney, Michigan. Activities included horseback riding, canoeing, campfires and a hayride. It really brought the Seniors together.

BACCALAUREATE

GRADUATION

"That which you hold in your hand — it is what you make it." As 49 graduates received diplomas, they kept in mind these words spoken by Fred Brown of Georgetown University. Mike Periard expressed the closeness of the class; of Father Jim's love and understanding. Mary Beth Cluley spoke of the scariness of separation. Father Jim's rendition of "You'll Never Walk Alone" brought him a standing ovation.
