Spirit Week

☀ One of the highlights of homecoming festivities is Spirit Week. This week gives the students of SHA an excuse to be creative in their own way through style. Throughout the week students dress according to the theme set for homecoming. This year theme was "Beach Party". Monday was Pajama Day, Tuesday was Beach Day, Wednesday was Favorite Decade Day, Thursday was Nerd Day and Friday was Red and White Day.

BELOW: Joe McGarry, Carl Champion, and Chris Miller keep the spirit up by stayin' groovy. These boys were very entertaining!!

The popular basketball commercial helped the Freshman girls win the Mock Rock Award. Overall, the Class of 2003 won spirit week for the second year in a row.

BELOW: Mrs Chamberlain and Mr Roberts go all out for Pajama Day.

Homecoming Assembly

BELOW: Some of the Senior classmates compete in a class competition and, of course, take first!

BELOW LEFT: The Super Juniors look like "Super Stars" during their performance.

BELOW: Liz Burdick and Hank Bertodatto were the MC's for this year's homecoming assembly.

OUR SPIRIT SHOWS

BEACH PARTY

ABOVE: It's not unusual to see Andy and Megan together!

ABOVE: Tim and Jamie bling-bling it out with all the gold they are wearing.

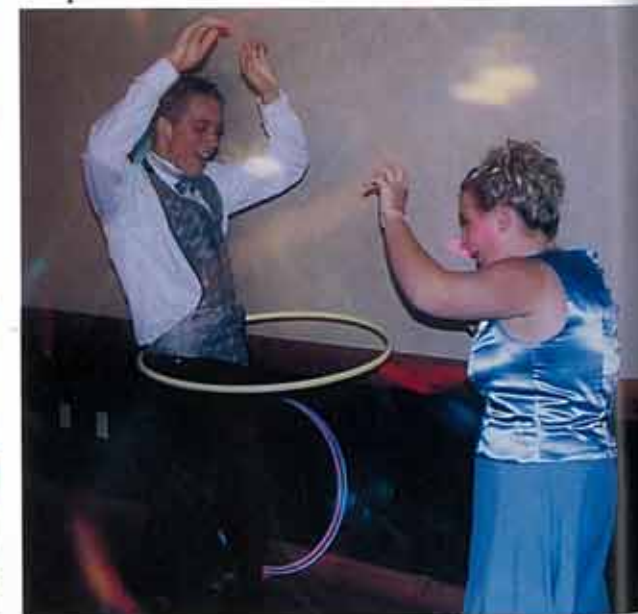

ABOVE: Mark waits for all the ladies to ask him to dance.

ABOVE: Everyone squeezes together out on the floor to dance the night away....at least till the clock strikes twelve!

BELOW: Instead of gettin' down and dirty with everyone else, Joe and Chinny bust out the hoola-hoops.

FAVORITE MOMENTS

My favorite moment would have to be...
The bus rides home because we always sing to songs and we had so much fun!
-Stacey Jaksa

My favorite moment would have to be...
When my coach tied my hands with jump rope, because I wouldn't stop swing with my arms.
-Kelli Sheahan-Stahl

CLASS ★ OFFICERS

Student Council and other Class Officers are the backbone of Sacred Heart Academy. The spirit and atmosphere of our school is a result of the hard work and dedication that these members bring to every project. Many of our fine traditions have been established by this creative group of individuals. They have taught us that, as individuals, we can do so little, but as a team, anything is possible.

You Speak:

What have you enjoyed most about representing your class this year?

"Since this is our final year of high school, I really want to make this the best experience possible for everyone in my class -- it's now or never."
Jennie Hedrich (Senior)

"I really enjoy getting involved with the projects and being able to make a difference through the ideas and help that I can contribute."
Amanda Hillmann (Junior)

"This is my first year on Student Council, and I've had a great time planning everything from Homecoming activities to pep-assemblies."
Jenny Robertson (Sophomore)

"The school picnic was my favorite project. I also liked offering opinions from a guy's perspective because what we plan affects everyone in class."
Ryan Lilly (Freshman)

Katie Schilling

"I enjoy working with lots of different people to help society."
Heather Doerr

Why do you enjoy volunteering with NHS?

"I like being able to offer hands-on help during our projects -- like at Winter Special Olympics."
Rebecca Cotter

"Every time we help others, I feel like I am making a difference in someone's life."
Julie Vargas

"The Special Olympics Basketball Tournament was fun because I was able to help kids enjoy a sport I really like."
Katy Bertodatto

"NHS was absolutely terrific. Any future member should help out with BINGO...it was the best project."
Andy Theisen

BUSINESS professionals OF AMERICA

What is the BEST part of B.P.A.?

"I liked networking with other students in Detroit and "Tony and Tina's Wedding" in Chicago." Lisa Abraham, Financial Analyst Team

"Even though Erika and I didn't get ANY sleep the night before we competed, the food was great!" Stacey Jaksa, Presentation Management Team

"The best part of BPA is that it gives you the chance to meet tons of new people from all over the place." Arnold Knake, P.C. Troubleshooting

"The competitions were an experience all in themselves, but I also enjoyed just goofing off during our down time." Vicki Krcmarik, Financial Analyst Team

"Whenever we weren't working on our project at Nationals, we shopped until we nearly dropped." Kaitlin Schneider, Financial Analyst Team

"We waited until 1:00 a.m. to prepare our speech and then had only five hours to memorize it!" Erika Schulte, Presentation Management Team

"States was great. We met so many people that weekend and had a blast making our video." Jessica Wojciechowski, Financial Analyst Team

Through co-curricular programs and services, members of Business Professionals of America compete in demonstrations of their business technology skills, develop their professional and leadership skills, network with one another and professionals across the nation, and get involved in the betterment of their community through good works projects.

A great deal of gratitude and appreciation goes to all of our advertisers and patrons. It takes time and effort to pull off a successful yearbook year after year. It also takes a lot of money, and without our advertisers and patrons, our efforts would be in vain. Because of the generosity and kindness of our advertisers and patrons, we hope that you will spend some extra time paging through this section.
